

Privacy Policy

We respect the privacy of all users and site visitors (collectively called “you” and “your”) and promise to do our best to protect your online privacy. This Privacy policy outlines the process of management, collection, maintenance and processing of users’ personal data by Hainan Tianchen Network Technology Co., Ltd., Secure1475 and its affiliated entities (hereinafter referred to as the “Mars Cloud Mine” or “we” , “us” and “our”).

1. Information Collection

We may utilize your personal data to provide and improve the miner sharing services (the “services”) provided by the Mars Cloud Mine, and to improve your use experience on this site. “Personal data” refers to any information related to an identified or identifiable person. We will collect the information you provide when you create an account to use the services. We also use various technologies to collect and store information, including Cookies, pixel tags and local storage (such as network storage of browser or application data cache, database and server logs). Your use of the services or this site indicates that you agree with the collection and use of the information by us according to this Privacy Policy. Unless otherwise stated herein, the terminology used in this Privacy Policy shall have the same meaning with the same terminology used in our Service Agreement.

1.1 Registration

You are required to provide such information when creating an account as your email, telephone number, password or other information.

1.2 Payment information

Your payment information will be sent to our third-party payment processors and your use indicates that you authorize us to store your encrypted wallet address and that we may have access to and keep the user information through our third-party payment processors.

1.3 Log information

We will collect the information sent by your browser when you visit our site and log in your account (the "log data"). The log data may include the following information: Internet Protocol (IP) addresses of your computer, browser type and version, web pages of the services you visited, time and date of the visiting, time spent on these pages and other statistical data. In addition, we may use third-party services, such as Google Analytics, to collect, monitor and analyze such information in order to enhance the functionality of our services. The third-party service providers have their own privacy policies to describe how they use such information. Such third-party service providers can only use your personal data as necessary for performing tasks on behalf of us.

1.4 How we use your personal information

We may use your personal information for the purposes listed below :

- (1) Show you our site and its contents;
- (2) Identify you as our users in our system;
- (3) Process your orders;
- (4) Provide customer services;
- (5) Respond to your requirements;
- (6) Provide you with product updates;
- (7) Improve our site;
- (8) Send news, investigations, special offers and other promotional materials relating to our products;
- (9) Communicate with you;
- (10) Manage the risks and protect the site and protect our services and you from fraudulent activities;
- (11) Comply with all applicable laws and regulations, and execute the service agreements of both this site and Secure1475;
- (12) Other purposes with your consent.

1.5 Information about Cookies

In order to provide you with better access experience, we use Cookies to allow this site to identify your browser and store user preference and other information. If permitted by your browser or the additional service of the browser, you may alter the acceptance degree of Cookies or reject Cookies. See AboutCookies.org for details. However, if you do so, it may in some cases affect your experience of visiting our site or make it impossible to use some of our services.

2. Third-party Service Providers

We may hire third parties to provide business relevant services for us. Such third parties may only obtain access to your personal data while providing services to us and are obliged not to disclose or use the data for any other purposes. However, the act of us providing your personal data to the third-party service providers shall not be deemed that we shall undertake any legal liability for the infringement of user information or privacy by a third-party service provider.

3. If You Are A Citizen of the European Economic Area (EEA)

If you are a citizen of the European Economic Area (EEA), you enjoy certain data protection rights based on applicable laws and regulations. Our goal is to adopt reasonable measures to allow you to alter, modify, delete or limit the use of your personal data. Please contact us if you wish to know about the personal information we hold about you and if you wish to delete your personal information from our system. We, however, assume no legal responsibility for the data manipulation acts by the citizens of the European Economic Area (EEA).

4. Information Security

Although we are committed to protecting our site and services, you are responsible for protecting and maintaining the security of your personal information, and verifying whether the personal information we maintain about you is correct and updated. You must prevent unauthorized access to your account. Be sure to log out when using shared computers and do not disclose your account and password and any other account information to any unauthorized person.

However, no transmission or electronic storage method through the Internet is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. We cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to our site and/or through our services. Any transmission of personal information shall be at your own risk.

5. International Data Transmission

By submitting your information, you agree that your information (including personal data) may be transmitted and stored to computers and systems outside the jurisdiction of your country/territory. Under such circumstances, we will endeavor to ensure that your information is protected to the same extent as regulated in your country/territory.

However, we do not assume any legal responsibility for the consequences brought about by such protection.

6. Third-party Links

Our services may contain links to third-party websites that are not operated by us. If you click such links, you will be directed to the relevant third-party websites. The Privacy Policy does not apply to other third-party websites. We strongly recommend that you check the privacy policies of the websites you visit. The Mars Cloud Mine can neither control any third-party websites or their contents of services and privacy policies, nor bear any responsibility.

7. Privacy of Children

We do not knowingly collect or maintain personal data on our site from persons under the age of 16, and no part of our site is targeted at persons under the age of 16. If you are under 16 or you are 16 but do not derive your income from your own labor, please do not use or visit this site in any way. If we are aware that we have accidentally collected the personal data from persons under 16 years old, we will delete or adopt other appropriate measures to dispose such personal data according to applicable laws and regulations.

8. Change of Purpose of Use of Personal Data

If we decide to use your personal data for any purposes other than those stated in this Privacy Policy, we will notify you and provide you with an effective exit option for not using your personal data for any purposes other than those stated in this Privacy Policy.

We may send you emails relating to new services and activities. You may select the “cancel subscription” function in each email we send to refuse to receive the promotional emails of Secure1475. However, users who agree to use this service will continue to receive other important emails pertaining to the services.

9. Information Storage Time

Unless required by applicable laws and regulations, we only keep and save your personal information within the time period as necessary to realize the purpose stated in this Policy. Under the circumstances permitted by law, we may store certain personal information for record keeping purposes or guarantee our rights and interests through legal means. Our storage of information is performed in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws and regulations, and we bear no legal responsibility for the information storage behavior.

10. How We Learn About, Acquire, Alter or Delete Your Personal Information

Please contact us via the contact information stated in the Privacy Policy if you wish to confirm that we are processing your data, or access your personal data that we may hold, alter or delete your personal information we have collected.

11. Contact Us

Please contact us in case of any concerns related to this Privacy Policy.
